

Geography

For Leaving Certificate

Geography helps develop an understanding of changing relationships between the physical and human worlds. It helps to make informed decisions on issues at local, national and international levels. It covers a wide variety of areas such as mapping and graphing alongside the core areas of physical/cultural/human and geo-ecological.

Career pathways:

- Town planning (Council)
- Teaching
- Cartography
- Demography
- Business
- Logistics
- Engineering
- Conservation Officer (OPW)

Also useful if considering:

Working with the

- Department of Agriculture
- Coillte
- Teagasc
- Marketing and logistics
- Department of Defence
- An Garda Síochána

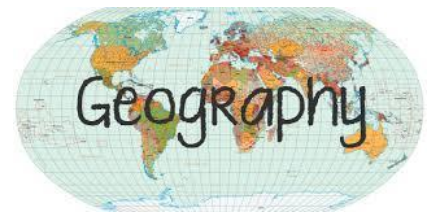

Past students who have studied Geography have gone on to ...

Advance to- 3rd level courses in areas such as Arts, Commerce, Agric Science, Health & Safety, Environmental Science, Economics, Farm Management, Outdoor Fieldwork Research & Geology.

A great choice if you:

Like variety as Geography offers a broad skills base, which involves Maths/ Statistics / Mapping / Presentation.

Geography has a wide range which fits many different disciplines.

Geography will enhance personal skills such as:

- Critical thinking
- Problem solving
- Presentation & interpretation
- Inter-disciplinary
- Communication
- Analytical
- Identification

Assessment:

2 Hour Exam- 80%
Fieldwork Project-20%

Levels:

Students can study the subject at both Higher and Ordinary Level

